Closing date for entries:- 19th May 2007.

On receipt of the completed entry form final route details will be sent out to participants.

Late entries may be accepted but will not appear in the programme.

This is the Ninth year of this event and its popularity continues to grow both with participants and spectators alike. In previous years the route has varied slightly and this year is no exception, and will be yet again follow a very scenic and interesting route. After a bit of thought and head scratching the route was decided on and although similar to last year it does take the vehicles through some of the spectacular scenery and countryside with some deviations.

Starting point this year will be:-

The Millers, North Lurg, Midmar, Aberdeenshire.

The Millers is a Family run business in the heart of Aberdeenshire, it can be found on the B9119 a few miles west of Echt on the Tarland road and consists of a Restaurant along with a Unique Shopping Experience. Anyone taking part or following the previous runs will know the Millers was the starting point on last few years routes. It will also be a chance to have some refreshment in preparation for the journey ahead.

The 2007 Route Summary

Participants will leave The Millers at 09.30hrs heading east toward Echt then to Banchory where vehicles will head for Strachan on the B974 and the south side of the River Dee, then change to the B976 following the river as far as Ballater and the first stop of the day. On leaving Ballater the route will head over the A939 through Glen Gairn passing by Gairnshiel Lodge and heading towards Donside. On Donside the route will pass through Strathdon, Bellabeg, Glenkindie, Kildrummy, Mossat, Lumsden and head towards the Cabrach by the B9002 Craig Castle road where it will join the A941 then continue over the Cabrach and at the junction with the A920 turn right and head for Huntly.

At the A920 junction with the A96 turn left heading north and after about three miles on the A96 you will arrive at the Ashgrove Restaurant, Landscaping and Garden Centre, Cairnie our final stop for the day where all vehicles and drivers will be ready for a break.
